old B.H.S. may you have a happy future

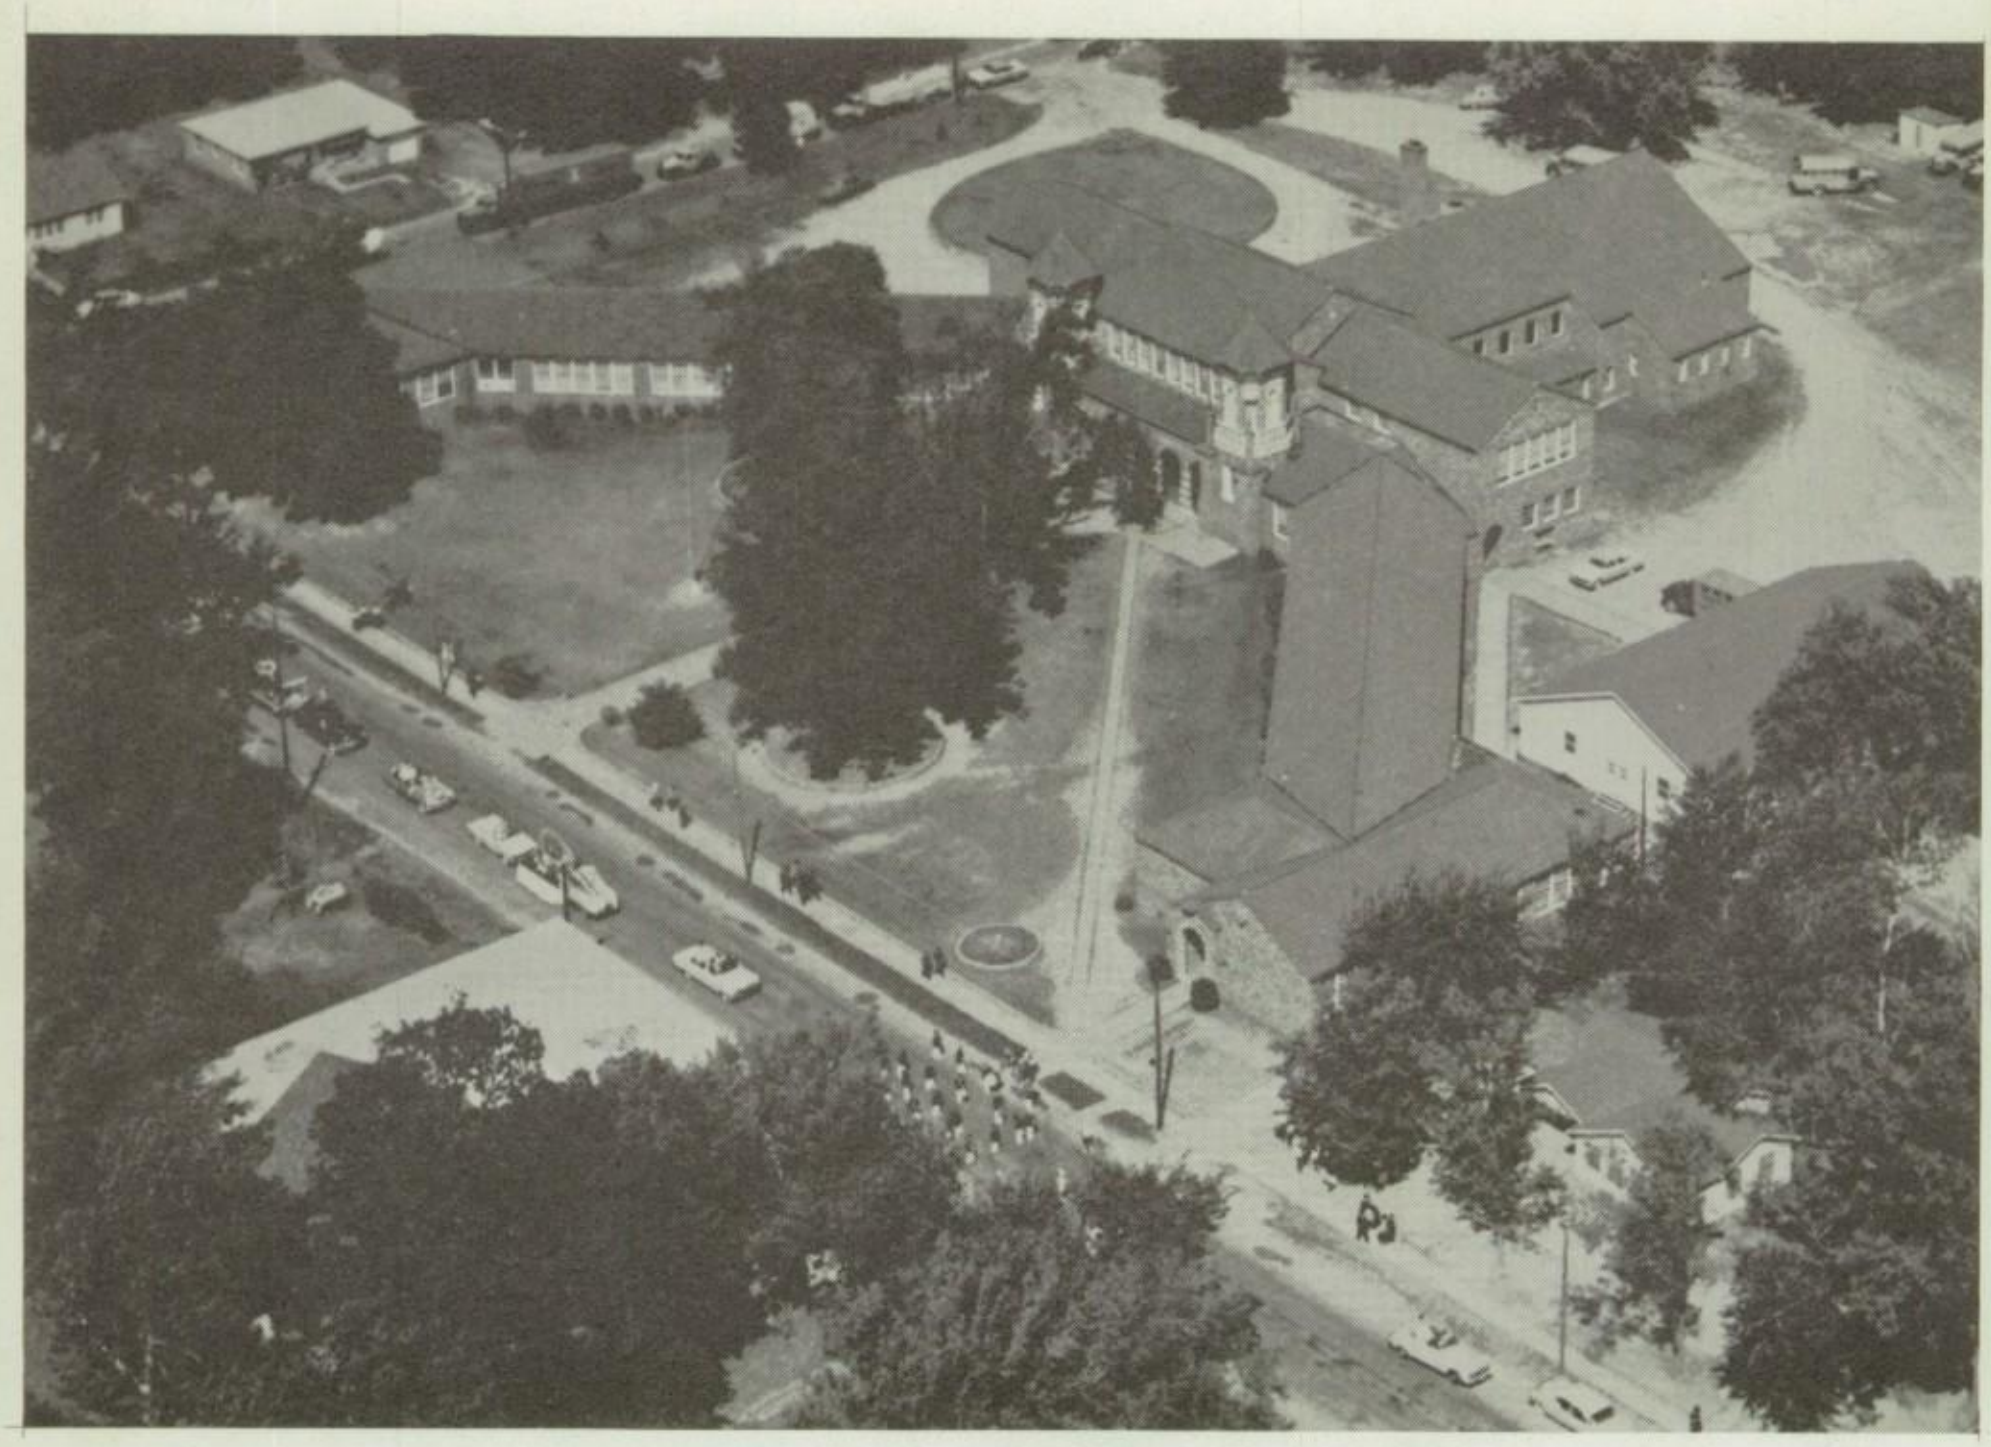
SUPERINTENDENT R. E. BAKER

I appreciate your very friendly disposition. Thanks for the many courtesies shown me. R E Baker

We, the Tiger Staff, dedicate the 1957 Tiger to Mr. R. E. Baker. The following message portrays the qualities which made us choose Mr. Baker for this dedication:

"The 1957 Tiger reflects the spirit of the school in the many phases of its activities. The purpose of this annual is to show the school as it really is by picture and diary of persons and events which will help us relive many of the interesting high points of our school year. Also it tells the story of an institution dedicated to teach the highest ideals of physical, mental, and spiritual education. The measure of success you have achieved will grow as the passing years brings to fruition the art of living and working together for the good of our school and community. You who have made this book become a reality are commended for your initiative and perserverance in seeing a project of this magnitude to completion.



ALMA MATER

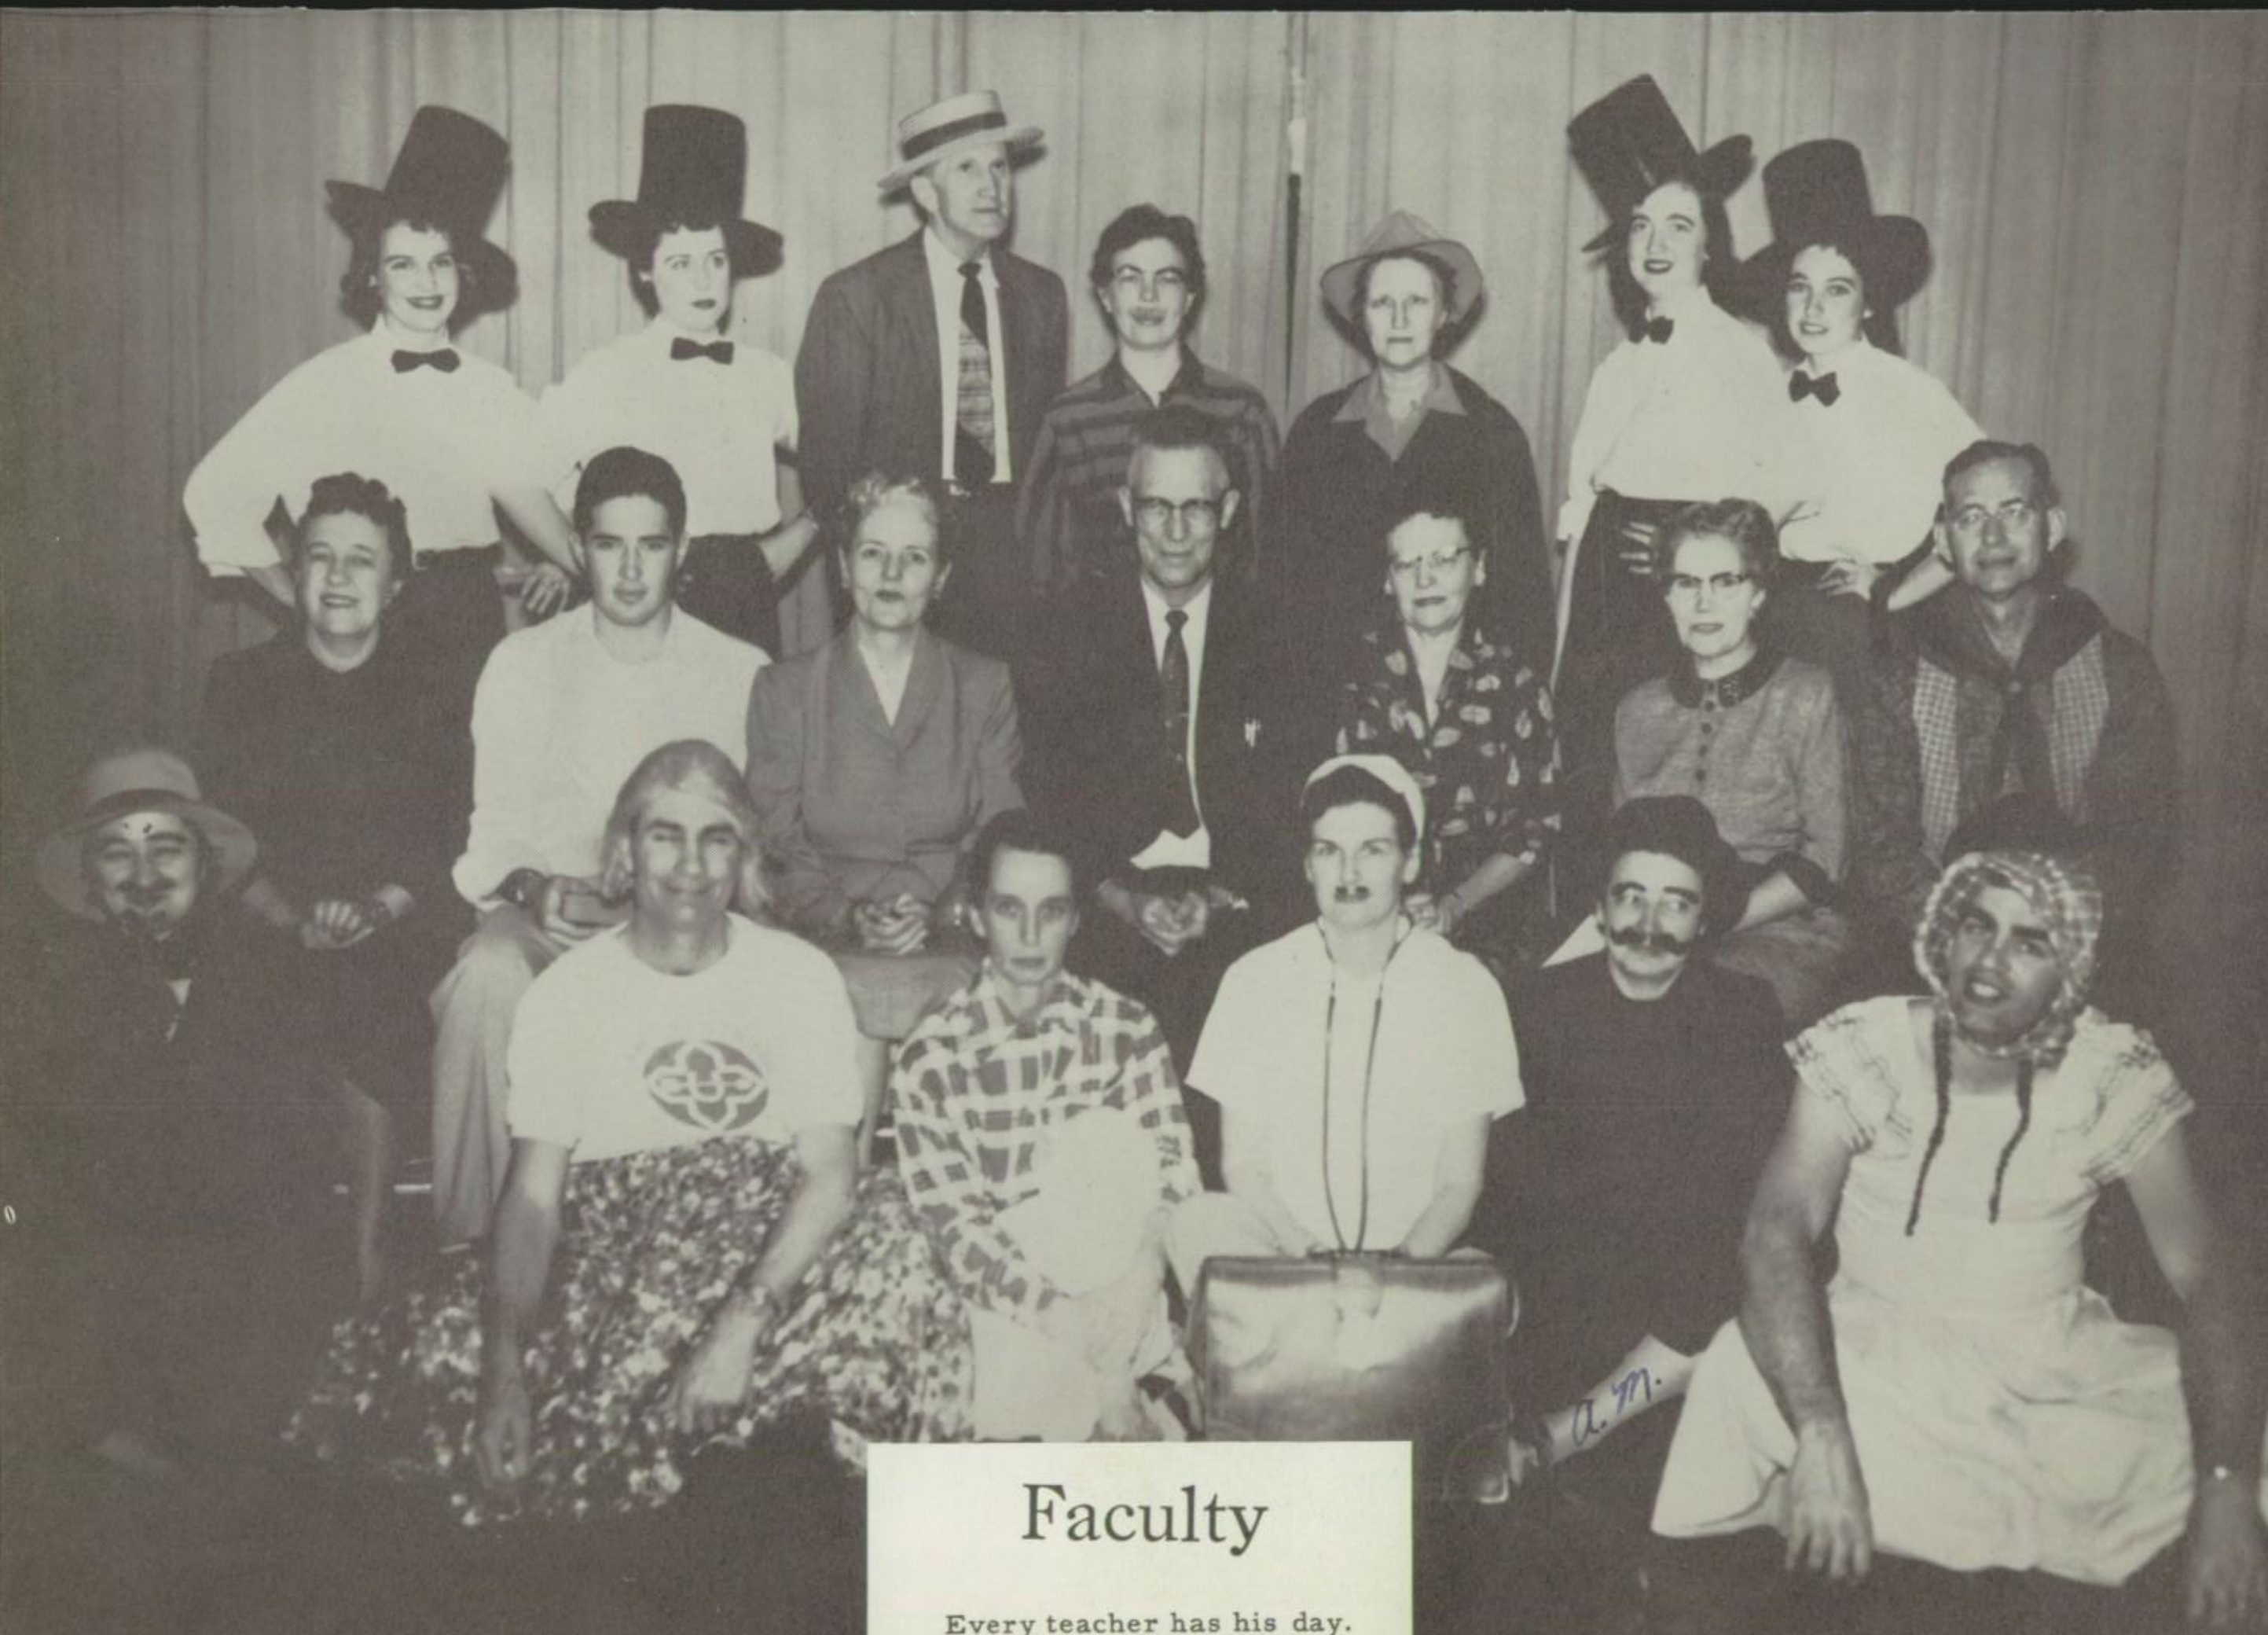
From o're the shining Ozarks,
To plains and oceans wide,
Your walls will always beckon me.

A symbol of devotion
To days we hold most dear,
An anchor for our loyalty.

Through years of joys and sorrows,
Your lessons will hold true,
Our thoughts of BHS will guide us on.

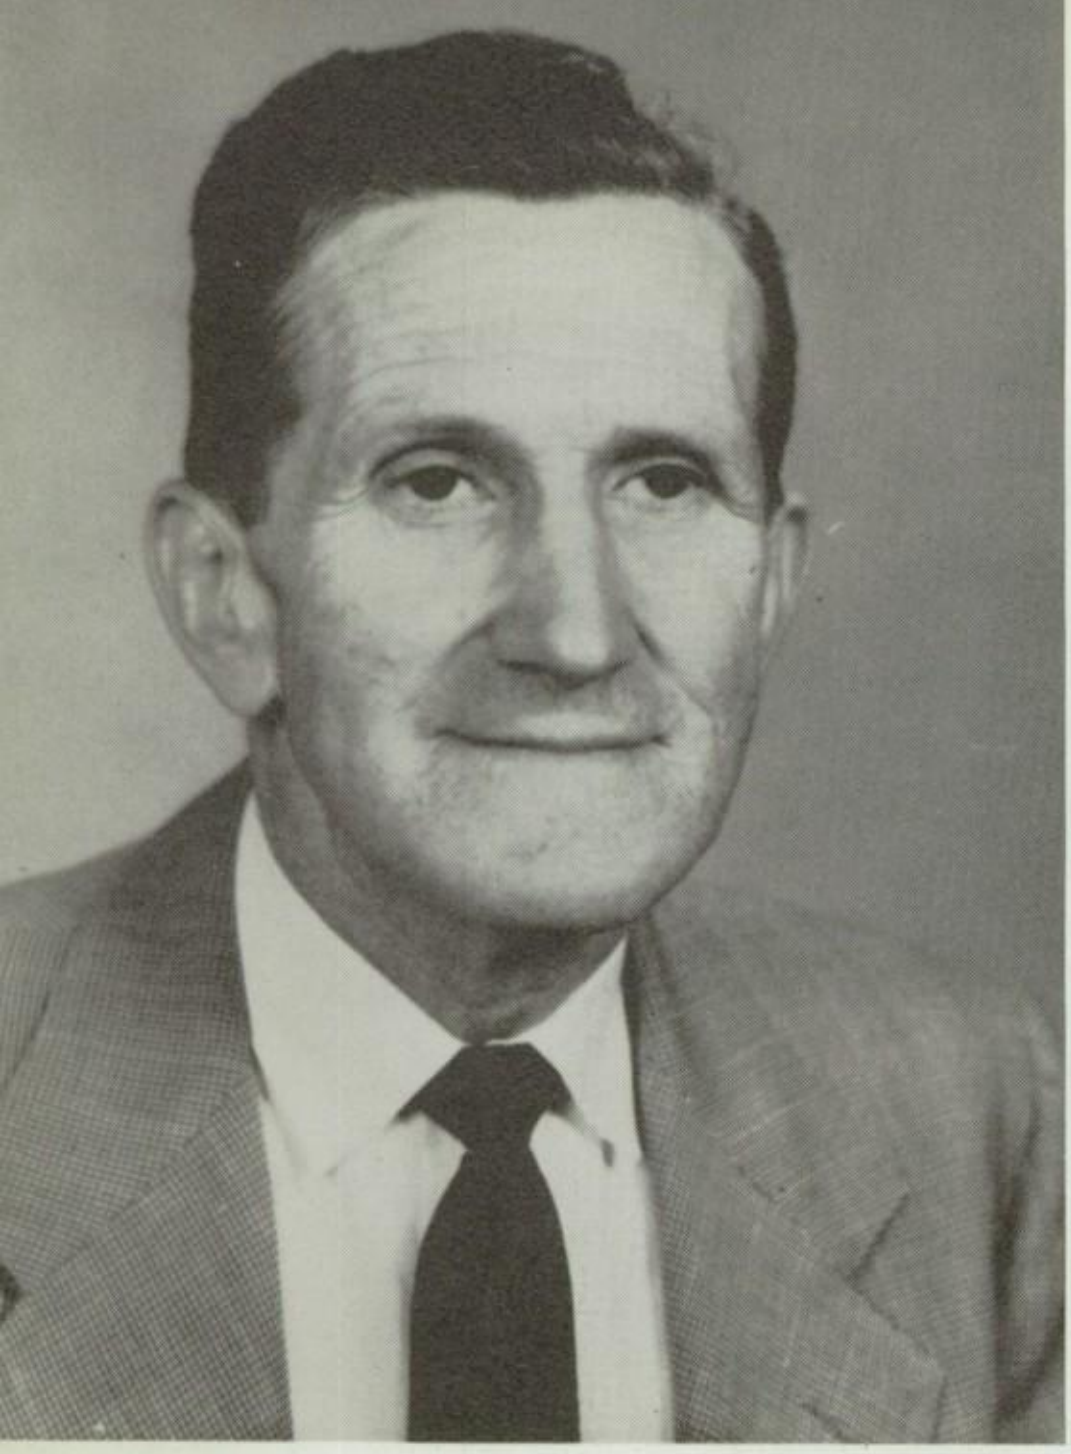
Our tasks will be much lighter
As ages roll along.
To you, our Alma Mater,
Pledge we now our love to you.

MRS. RUTH BARKER DICK COMFORT



Faculty

Every teacher has his day.



R. E. BAKER

The traditions, philosophy and loyality of our school has been studied and evaluated carefully. In the present we look with pride on the rank of our school in achievements of students. But it is in the future that brings us the challenge to expand our program to meet the demands of society upon the youth of today.

Since assuming the leadership of the school I appreciate the continued support and loyalty in helping to build on the present foundation a progressive school program.

Sincerely yours,

R. E. BAKER

Activities

This float (the Seniors' naturally) was good enough to win first place in the Homecoming parade.

The Senior assembly which was presented September 26, was of a comical nature and was enjoyed by everyone.

"You Can't Take It With You" was present - ed by this year's Seniors last year. Under the expert direction of Mr. Canaday, the fine cast gave a professional performance.

In Memory of our Classmate,
JAY CUMPTON

Somewhere there is a scout now waiting,
Somewhere upon the road.
Somewhere the bugle is calling
Break camp and shoulder your load.

Our packs are not very heavy in duty.
We never shall fail as we travel
the path he left us.
Somewhere there's a scout up the trail.
We must follow the banner he set for us.

As we camped down there by the stream,
The memory will linger forever, it is not merely a dream.
As a scout he was ever on duty,
As a friend he never would fail.
Let's up and shoulder our packs, boys!
There is a scout somewhere up the trail.

He was faithful in the line of duty,
A better friend could not be had.
At our meetings we surely will miss him.
With hearts that are silent and sad.

He has heard the voice of the Master
Whose love will always prevail.
He is waiting up there with the angels,
A scout at the end of the trail.
